New President and Vice President

Symbol USS [TSX-V]

Vancouver, British Columbia (June 25, 2009) –

Uniserve Communications Corporation (TSX-V: USS) (“Uniserve” or the “Company”) announces that Michael Schmidt has been appointed as President of Uniserve.

“Mr. Schmidt brings with him a proven track record of consistent revenue growth, executive leadership and telecommunications understanding,” stated William Spratt, Chief Executive Officer of Uniserve. Prior to re-joining Uniserve, from his previous role as VP, Marketing and Sales, Mr. Schmidt oversaw the sales and marketing function for a successful telecommunications company.

“I look forward to leading the next phase of growth for Uniserve, and building on the foundation of excellence in our employees and their philosophies around customer service,” said Michael Schmidt, President of Uniserve. “It is an exciting time in the evolution of telecommunications, and certain needs in the market have arisen that Uniserve is fully capable and enthusiastic to fill,” stated Mr. Schmidt.

Uniserve is also pleased to announce the addition of Bruce Sanderson, Vice President Product Development, to its management team. Mr. Sanderson will be responsible for developing a suite of products to meet the needs of the small and medium sized business customer.

“Mr. Sanderson’s expertise in telephone communications, both traditional and VoIP based systems, and the related hardware, will help us deliver effective and innovative solutions to our customers,” said William Spratt, Chief Executive Officer.
